

Psychiatric Symptoms Documentation

Client Name: _____ Month/Year: _____

Instructions: Next to the day and under each symptom, write the number (0-6) from the chart below indicating the number of times each particular symptom was present during the AM and PM.

Depression: Defined as cranky or irritable, lack of interest in activities, cries easily.

Psychosis: Defined as reports of hearing things that others do not hear. Is observed talking to someone who is not seen by others.

Date	Depression		Psychosis		Comments	Staff Signature(s)
	AM	PM	AM	PM
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31

0	Did not Occur
1	Low - Occurred approximately once every four hours (about 2 times during your shift).
2	Low-Moderate - occurred approximately once every 2 hours (about 4 times on your shift).
3	Moderate - Occurred approximately every hour (about 8 times on your shift).
4	High-Moderate - Occurred approximately every 30 minutes (about 16 times on your shift).
5	High - Occurred approximately every 30 minutes (about 32 times on your shift).
6	Extreme- Occurred more often than every 15 minutes.